MULHALL BARES HIS LOBBY RECORD

"Colonel" Tells Strange Story of N. A. M. Plots to Beat Labor Interests.

(Continued from First Page.) emes of a political and lobbying sort which he had been engaged. In these, generally speaking, he appeared as the paid tool of Marshall Cushing former secretary of the N. A. M. The letters read today related largely to the earlier period of Mulhall's activities for the N. A. M., as field agent and lobby'st. He testified last night he had been in the service of that association should be a service of the s ociation about a decade, beginning in

Just before Mulhall started, James A. Emery, counsel for the National Association of Manufacturers, asked the committee to allow the association privilege of counsel. He presented Robert McCarter, former attorney general of New Jersey, whom the association desired to have present as coursely and desired to have present as counsel and to cross-examine witnesses and suggest additional witnesse. The requet was taken under advisement by the committee, as was a request through Jack-son H. Ralston, of this city, counsel for the American Federation of Labor, that this organization be represented by

Hold Executive Session.

Previous to hearing Mulhall, the enate committee held an executive ession and authorized Senator Overman to send Chairman Garrett of the the attitude of the committee. In this letter , which Senator Overman later sent, Mr. Garrett was told of the circumstances under which the Senate lobby committee was created, of the fact an attempt had been made by an official of the House on behalf of the House committee to take Mulhall while he was still in the offices of the while he was still in the offices of the Senate committee last night, and he was advised the House committee could not have possession of either Mulhall or the letters until the Senate committee was through with them, all this without meaning any disrespect to the House or the House committee. Not in language, but in effect, it was a defiance of the House committee and service of notice on it that this was a case where possession was nine points of the law.

If old Machlavelli did not turn in his grave this morning, and kick his If old Machiavelli did not turn in his grave this morning, and kick his crumbled anatomy for being an amateur, while Mulhall went ahead with his tale, it is cause for wonder. The letters which were read into the record and the statements of Mulhall, supposing all the allegations to be true, supplementing them showed plottings and machinations by the N. A. M., on a great scale, of both a political and a lobbying nature.

Identifies a Letter of the N. A. M. in its fight. doctrine that the end justifies means was ruthlessly followed political treachery was common.

Activities Nation-iWde.

The activities of the N. A. M. were seemed as if, from the headquarters campaign for election to Congress in here, with Marshall Cushing in the Maryland. earlier years in charge, movements were set on foot and in many cases cleverly carried out to win the war of capital against labor wherever the two were pitted against each other. Men in Congress or aspiring thereto who were not amenable to the N. A. M. were to be crushed. Others who were amenable were to be helped and were helped. Legislation at Washington was to be Legislation at Washington was to be watched. Plots were formed by which labor was to be turned against itself and led to fight its own interests. There were plots within plots, schemes within schemes and wheels within wheels. Boasting that the industrial interests of rganized oughly than ever before, Marshall Cush-ing from his headquarters kept in contant and minute touch with Mulhal! paid agent in the field and directed Back in 1904, the date when most of the letters read this morning were written, it was the eight-hour bill in Congress which was the chief object of the N. A. M. attack.

Parties Disregarded.

war of the N. A. M. on former Sena-tor McComas of Maryland, because he pushed an eight-hour bill. Cuching, through Mulhall, was presented as dog-ging McComas to defeat because he would not give up the eight-hour meas-ure. He was beaten for the Senate, he was opposed for Federal judge, and a fight of no quarter waged on him. Mul-hall used freely in this fight, as in oth-ers, the Workingmen's Protective Asso-ciation of Baltimore, which he fostered and whose membership he ran up to 1,200.

McComas was fought, Sidney Mudd tried to make peace with him, but posi-

Boys Wading in Forbidden Fountain

These Mischievous Youngsters and Others Like Them Defy Park Regulations and Enjoy Themselves Until Some "Copper" Appeals and Stops

helped, at the instance of Senator Foraker. Mulhall took a hand in the Rhode Island situation and helped elect Nelson W. Aldrich. "But whether he is bluffing or really means to advocate it." Hughes of New Jersey, now in the Senate, was fought as a candidate for the House because he was too friendly to labor.

Paid Labor Men.

In the fights against McComas and Hughes, according to Mulhall, he did not nesitate to reach into the labor organizations and pay labor men to oppose the very men who were trying to do something for labor. He named as a number of labor men who had been on his payroll and had been suborned by him to knife the men seeking to legislate for labor. all were bought, however. In the Workingmen's Protective Associa-tion, said Mulhall, were many old men who were conservative and were honest in their opposition to eighthour legislation.

Secrecy, money, the desire for office, the ignorance or conservatism doctrine that the end justifies the means was ruthlessly followed and Identifies a Letter. Mulhall identified a letter enclosing $60 to Sidney Mudd on October 21, 1904, "Who contributed that money?"

"The Workingmens' Protective Asso-

"And not the N. A. M?"
"Oh no, sir. This was a bona fide contribution. As the letter says we realized the crooked Democratic ma-realized the crooked Democratic machine was fighting Mudd and we wanted to aid him in his fight."

"What crooked Democratic organization do you mean?"
"The Baltimore organization."
Mulhall then identified a telegram from William Ryan, of New York, telling of the defeat of Hughes. He said he employed Ryan for fifteen months to do political work, starting him in at $40 and at the last paying him $65 a week. friends at the primaries.
"But we punished Democrats and Re publicans alike who were obnoxious to us," he added. "We had no party us," he added. "We had no party lines when we went out to fight a can-didate for Congress who we believed was dangerous to our interests."

Letter Put In Record.

A letter sent on November 26 Partisanship cut no figure in the N. Secretary Cushing, of the N. A. M. M. calculations, according to the to Mulhall, congratulating him on his Mulhall disclosures. Whenever an unfriendly head appeared, steps were taken to strike it, whether it was Republican or Democrat. Mulhall admitpublican or Democrat. Mulhall admitted that his activities as field agent, political manipulator, and lobbyist, had little to do with party.

One of the most remarkable phases of the correspondence today concerned the war of the N. A. M. on former Senator McComas of Maryland, because he pushed an eight-hour bill. Cuching, through Mulhall, was presented as dogging McComas to defeat because he would not give up the eight-hour means to the company of the honestly means to let up, you appromise him to remove every obca promise him to remove every stacle to his political ambition," the letter, which Mulhall was directed

> Tried To Make Peace. Mulhall saw McComes, and the latte

'doesn't matter to us. The only thing certain is that we cannot tie up to him. There are three factions in the Repubican organization in Maryland now to benefit greatly through the fight now in progress."
Then these workers, all holding cards as members of organized labors, worked night and day and finally ac-complished Hughes' defeat. And they were paid from the funds of the N. Mulhall was sent to Senator Aldrich by the then Senator Roraker of Ohio. The witness brazenly admitted lining up the labor leaders of Rhode Island to work for Aldrich and said that he had paid them from the funds of the National Association of Hanufactur-ers furnished him by Secretary Mar-means to advocate it," wrote Cushing to Mulhall, when the latter reported this,

Got $140 Weekly.

During the entire campaign of 1904. McComas.

Mulhall also admitted that he had in his employ, George B. Squires, a bookkeeper in the offices of the American Federation of Labor. The latter, he said, made complete reports to him of all that transpired in the offices of the federation and of all plans made by it to fight the N. A. M.

More than a score of letters dealing with Maryland campaign of 1904 and 1905, in which Mulhall took an active part, were read into the Record.

It is shown that Squires, who acted as spy for Mulhadd and N. A. M., finally lost his position with the American Federation of Labor. Mulhall and Cushing, through the aid of the Republican organization, got him a place in the Government employ in Panama.

Several letters from Cushing to Mulhall calling for information of union labor matters were introduced. In each instance, the information was forthcoming.

instance, the information was forthcom-Mulhall said the N. A. M. usually hall made the most comprehensive re-favored Republicans and backed its ports to Cushing on both labor and political matters. Cushing wrote Mulhall, in 1966, to do his utmost to have Congressman Frank E. Wachter, of Maryland, become more active in opposing the pending eight-hour bill. "Why was this considere necessary" "Because whenever a vote was reached Wachter was usually conveniently ed Wachter was usually conveniently absent, said Mulhall.

In a letter written to J. C. Hill, of Washington, by Cushing, mention was made of a John McIntyre, of Baltimore, and Mulhall was asked who he was.

"Oh, he is a lobbyist here in Washington now," replied Mulhall, "working for the N. A. M."

ing for the N. A. M."

A letter from Michael Collins, business agent for the National Hoisters'
Association of Philadelphia, contained the reference to a death with the following:
"This makes another Socialist less for us to contend with."
Reading of this reference caused a general laugh, in which the committee

Trip To Albany.

Mulhall told of a trip to Albany, during the legislative session of 1906 to get a bill killed which was obnoxious to the N. A. M. Askad how he killed it, he said he "saw Boss Barnes and the bill was killed through him." The "Boss Barnes" referred to is William Barnes, jr., chairman of the New York Republican State Committee.

A copy of a bill introduced in the New York State senate by Senator Page during the session of 1905 was leave Luray 6:00 P. M. same day.—Advt.

HOUSE PROBE HELD UP BY UPPER BODY

Senate Guards Witnesses Which Its Committee Holds by Priority of Subpoena.

Checkmated by the Senate commitee, which refuses to surrender either Colonel Mulhall or "the papers" alalleged to support his charges, the

Neither Colonel Mulhall nor J. H. McMichael, alleged "spy" of the National Association of Manufacturers, showed up at the session of the louse committee, which convened at o'clock. The Senate committee met simultaneously and the colonel was on the stand at the opposite end of

The House probers were at first in-dignant that young McMichael had not appeared and threatened to find out why. It was later ascertained that both McMichael and Mulhall are under virtual guard before the Over-man committee, and, as they are under prior subpoena, by that body, the House investigators are in a rather helpless state.

Wants Witnesses Loaned.

Chairman Garrett will make an-tion meeting also, this afternon at 2

There is a diplomatic correspondence in progress today between the two com-mittees, the House finding itself in the mittees, the House finding itself in the attitude of having to ask the Senate for favors. In the correspondence Chairman Garrett and Chairman Overman telks of "harmony" in the two investigations and yet between the lines there is revealed a decided sparring for advantage. Mr. Garrett hopes, for instance, that the Senate committee will not block the progress of the House committee by declining to allow replies to the subpoenas issued by the Garrett board for witnesses who are wanted by both committees.

Wants Refusal In Record.

At the brief session of the House con Mulhall drew $140 weekly from the mittee this morning, Congressman Staf-N. A. M., which he used in fighting ford suggested that "the record ought to show that the chairman of our committee asked the Senate committee for in his employ, George B. Squires, a certain prints of the Mulhall papers and that, after the House committee met yesterday afternoon, the Senate commitee began to show unusual activity. meeting at an unheardof early hour today." This will be fully set forth in the House record. James A. Emery, counsel forthe Na-tional Association of Manufacturers, after making his statement before the Senate committee made a statement before the Garrett committee this afternoon. Mr. Emery said the associa-tion was eager and willing to co-operate with both investigating bodies, and he hoped the investigation would proceed rapidly.

"I presume this is to be a quasi-judicial inquiry, and not an omnibus prosecution on the indictment of a scandal-monger," said Mr. Emery. The committee will take up later Mr. Emery's request that counsel for the association shall be permitted to interrogate witnesses before the House probers.

shown the witness who was asked why it was in his possession.

"I was sent that bill by Mr. Cushing and told to go over to Albany and fight it. The measure amended the code of civil procedure, so that the burden of proof in an action where the contention contributory negligence was raised, should be on the defendant."

"Were there any other agents of the "Were there any other agents of the N. A. M. there at htis time?"

"Yes, half a dozen."
"Did you take the position that this bill was not in the interest of labor?" "Why, no Senator, that was not the way to kill a bill in those days. You did not have to see many people to kill a bill. Why all you had to do at that session was to see Boss Barnes, Knew Him Long Time. 'Did you see him?"

"Yes, sir, I did, I had known him for number of years."
And did he kill the bill?" "It was killed; yes, sir."

$2.00 To Luray, Va., and Return Sun-

SENATE TO CONFIRM NEWMAN FOR POST

Action to Be Taken Despite Opposition of "Home Rule" Committee.

Despite efforts of the "home rule the Senate will confirm committee" Oliver P. Newman as District Commissioner early the coming week. Yes House lobby investigating committee terday afternoon, without opposition, held a rather futile and exasperating the nominations of F. L. Siddons, as District Commissioner, and J. Wilmer Latimer, as judge of the Juvenile Court were confirmed.

Senator Smith, chairman of the District Committee, in accordance with the action of the committee earlier in the day, reported the nomination of Mr. Newman to the Senate. That body will not be in session today or he would probably be confirmed this afternoon. t will meet Monday.

More firmly convinced were the mem-bers of the Senate District Committee of the eligibility of Mr. Newman for the the eligibility of Mr. Newman for the Commissionership, on the presentation of a telegram from the latter's employer, bearing out the declaration that Washington is the place of his residence. The telegram was submitted to the committee by Jackson H. Ralston, Mr. Newman's attorney. It is as follows:

Chairman Garrett will make another effort this afternoon to have the Senate committee "loan" to the House investigators such witnesses as are not now being used by the Senate committee.

The entire situation is regarded as both serious and amusing at the Capitol and indications now are that the House committee cannot get down to work for several days. The committee will hold another executive session, which may be an indignation meeting also, this afternon at 2 o'clock.

"St. Paul, Minn., July 10, 1913.

"As the president and general manager of Newspaper Enterprise Association, I employed Oliver P. Newman and brough thim to Chicago on temporary assignment to cover national campaign. His return to Washington was contemplated at that time, and my successor so transferred him to Washington when campaign closed. At time of employment Newman stipulated that he desired Washington Station as he regarded that as home and wanted to remain there. His stay in Chicago was solely temporary and on special assignment.

"W. B. COLVER." When President Wilson feturns to Washington, he will be asked to consider the data filed against Frank B. Lord as excise commissioner, and to withdraw his name. It developed that the committee yesterday deferred action on Mr. Lord in order to give the President an opportunity to consider the affidavits.

Leaders of Opposition.

Senators Jones and Works are leading n the opposition to Mr. Lord, but there s also Democratic opposition. It was stated in an authoritative quarter today that the real reason the Senate committee deferred action yesterday was to enable Senators to suggest withdrawal of the name as the best way out of the situation.

The "home rule committee" met last night at the New Ebbitt and decided to continue its fight against Mr. Newman. certain prints of the Mulhall papers and that the Senate committee declined to furnish this print."

"Yes, and the record should also show," added Congressman Willis, with a after the House committee or five to draft a memorial protesting against Mr. Newman's confirmation. This will be presented to the Senate itself. The committee consists of F. Edward Mitchell, B. G. Brown, I. N. England, C. C. Lancaster, and W. N. England, C. C. Lancaster, and W.

Test of Eligibility.

committee adopted a resolution directing the chairman to name a committee of five to begin proceedings in the District Supreme Court to test Mr. Newman's eligibility. Before that is ione, the Attorney General or the District Attorney will be requested to file suit in the name of the United States Various persons have repudiated their committee." are H. L. Rust, Dr. Charles M. Emmons, Julius Tolson, and Dr. Walter C. Murphy.

It is generally understood that Mr Siddons, whose nomination already has Siddons, whose nomination already has been favorably acted upon by the Sen-ate, will not take the oath of office as nmissioner until after the confirma tion of Mr. Newman. Custom always has required the two incoming Commis sioners to be sworn in together, al-though there is no law requiring it. Mr. Wilson will return to Washington Monday, and at the same time, it is expected that the Senate will confirm Mr. Newman. Then the commissions of Mr. S'ddons and Mr. Newman will be signed y the President.

The Commissioners will be required to take two oaths when they come into of-fice, one as Commissioner and the other as member of the Public Utilities Commission. This is the first time the dou-ble oath has been required.

Department Enlarged.

Dr. Ralph Martin Samuel, of 1209 (Dr. Raiph Startin Samuel, of 129 G street, has enlarged his optical estab-lishment by an addition to the manufac-turing department. Lens grinding ma-chinery and other equipment installed will add to the efficiency of his service.

$1.00 To Harper's Ferry and Martinsburg, $1.35 Berkeley Springs, $2.00 Cum-berland and return. Sunday, July 13th, 8:20 A. M., Baltimore and Ohlo from Union Station, Washington. Returning same day .-- Advt.

Legislative News In Brief

Outside Civil Service.

Senator Smith of South Carolina has introduced in the Senate a bill tstandardize cotton grades. The bill pro vides for Government standardization of grades. The purpose is to thwart the attempts of cotton exchanges to arbitrarily fix the value of cotton sold for future delivery.

Naval Observatory Clash.

Friction between Prof. Milton Upde-graff, one of the assistants at the United States Naval Observatory, and Capt. Joseph L. Jayne, superintendent of the observatory, has brought about break which has caused the summon-ing of a special board to determine the professional efficiency and fitness of Prof. Updegraff. The board will hold Wants Collector Retained.

President Bordas, of Santo Domingo, has cabled President Wilson requesting the retention of William E. Pulliam as collector of customs in Santo Domingo. Mr Pulliam has held the office ever since 1907. Walter W. Vick, of New Jersey, already has been named. Increase Army Estimate.

Supplemental estimates of $370,404 have been submitted to the House by the War Department for the next fiscal year. Those estimates cover pay, additional pay for length of service, subsistence and clothing for an increase of $22 men in the enlisted strength of the Tenth Infantry, stationed in the Panama Canal Zone, and an increase of 162 in the Hospital Corps.

in the Hospital Corps. Bank To Reopen.

The First National Bank of Mc-Keesport, Pa., closed July 7, by the Acting Comptroller of the Currency, as a precautionary measure incident on the closing of the First-Second National, of Pittsburgh, will be reopened next Wed-nesday or Thursday. The McKeesport institution is all right and ready to re-sume with plenty of cash on hand, ac-cording to a report to the Comptroller by National Bank Examiner Williams.

Right To "Nick Carter."

The effort of the "movies" to capture Nick Carter, the hero of hundreds of thrilling tales which have been read surreptitiously by Young America for two decades, is being resisted before the United States Supreme Court by a New York firm of publishers. The pub-lishers claimed a copyright to "Nick" and objected when a St. Louis company attempted to use the hero of yellow back fiction as a moving picture detecback fiction as a moving picture detec-tive. The case reached the Supreme Ccurt on appeal of the publishers from the lower court decision.

Philadelphia Commander.

pleted.

Pleads for Democracy. Going outside of the civil service,
President Wilson has authorized the appointment of James D. Calhoun as deputy collector of customs at Tampa, Fla.

Aims At Cotton Exchanges.

The United States Bureau of Education was represented at the annual convention of the National Education Association, which closed last night in Sate Lake City. Utah, by Thomas Jesse Jones, of Washington, who gave an address in which he pleaded for more

Cranes To Be Sold.

The Panama canal commission has given notice that it will shortly be ready to sell the giant steel cranes be-ing used in placing the concretes in the locks. The locks are almost com-pleted, and what concrete there is still to be placed will be put in corners out of the reach of the cranes.

Tests For Lieutenancies. Eight Washington young men among sixty-nine candidates for pintment as second lieutendents in the United States Marine Corps. Examination will be held here next Monday. The Washington boys are Lerry Lee Baldwin, 532 Fourteenth street southeast; Egbert Thompson Lloyd, 2504 Connecticut avenue, and Edmund Monroe Emmerich, Samuei Lutz Howard, Hunter McGuire, William Henry Rupertus, William Wade Dudley Smith, and Ethelbert Talbot.

Breaks Up Land Holdings.

Breaking up of irrigated land holdings nto small tracts was the special condition imposed by the Secretary of the Interior today for immediate progress on the West Umatilia irrigation project on the west Umatilia irrigation project in Oregon. After a conference with Senators Chamberlain and Lane, he is-sued orders to that effect involving lands of the Oregon Land and Water Company. The recent contract between the Government and the Northern Pa-cific Railway Company is to be followed as a model in this instance.

Japan Gives Loving Cup.

The Navy Department has received through the State Department a handsome silver loving cup, presented by some sliver loving cup, presented by the Japanese government to the U. S. S. Charleston in recognition of services rendered by the officers and crew dur-ing a flood in the city of Tokyo in August, 1910. The suffering among the people of Tokyo were extreme, and of-ficers and crew of the Charleston, which was in the vicinity, raised a fund which was sent ashore for the relief of the sufferers.

Overalls For Officers.

Further steps toward making the merican navy more democratic have een taken by Secretary Daniels in an order which he has issued directing Sunday.

navy officers on duty in the shops of the navy yards to wear overalls instead of their customary uniforms. at the I Capt. William S. Benson, now commanding the battleship Utah, has been named by Secretary Daniels to succeed Capt. Albert W. Grant as commandant of the Philadelphia Navy Yard. Captain Grant has been directed to proceed to Newport News, Va., to inspect the construction of the battleship Texas, which he will command when it is completed. the lavy yard commandants."

MEET TO ORGANIZE SOCIETY FOR BLIND

Association Will Be Formed to Help Sightless Better to Care for Themselves.

A second meeting to form an organi zation for the betterment of condition for the blind of the District was held last night in the lecture room of the Public Library. Twenty-nine blind persons were present, accompanied by many of their friends. Committees appointed at the first meeting, held at the Library of Congress June 26, submitted reports of progress made on the work, finance committee especially showng good results.

The organization, to be known as the District of Columbia Association of Workers for the Blind, is not for social purposes, but to help the blind, so that they may be better able to take care of the control of the care of the control of the care of the care themselves.

The association is to be conducted entirely by blind people, all the officers and active members being men and women who are sightless, or nearly so.

Last night the constitution was read and adopted. The active members must have been residents of the District for a period of one year. Associate members period of one year. Associate members can become active only after residence for that time, and until they are active members they can have no vote or voice members they can have no vote or voice on any question before the association. The temporary officers are French Hufty, chairman, and R. W. Swann, secretary, and the finance committee includes Miss Catherine Grady, Miss Susie Guff, Miss Devere Whitton, Miss E. Louise Patterson, and Andrew Raymond.

The next meeting will be held Thursday, July 17, when regular officers will be elected.

WEATHER REPORT.

The forecast for the District of Co-lumbin-Unsettled, with thunder show-ers tonight or Sunday, little change in temperature.

Maryland—Unsettled, thundershowers tonight or Sunday; little change in temperature.

Virginia—Thundershowers tonight or Sunday.
Pennsylvania—Thundershowers tonight or Sunday.
Delaware—Thundershowers tonight of

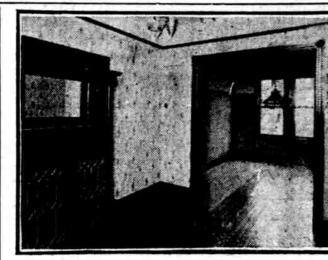

The Opportunity

To Secure a

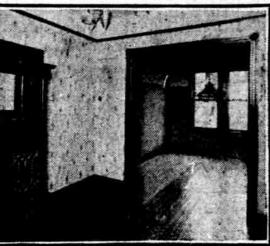

6Room Home

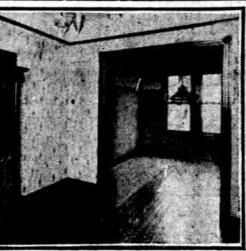

Columbia Heights

of a Lifetime

Looking From Parlor Into Dining Room.

At price and terms that every rent payer can afford. Located on Harvard street, between 11th and 9th street car lines; also > convenient to 14th street The Price:

The Terms: Small Cash Payment and $24.50

(which includes princioal, interest, taxes, and water rent.)

Monthly

The two illustrations given here can hardly do justice to these homes. Inspect them at once and you w'll appreciate the wonderful value which they represent.

The imposing fronts, large porches, and terraced lawns, give added attractiveness to these already superb homes Their beautiful architecture and quality of standard always found in WARDMAN Homes.

OPEN AND LIGHTED UNTIL 9 P. M.

TO INSPECT—

Take any 11th or 9th street car, get off at Harvard street, and you are right at the homes. SAMPLE HOME, 719 Harvard

HARRY WARDMAN, 1430 K St. N. W. Wardman Building

$100 CASH 1810 2d St. N. W. 6 Rooms

Hot-water Heat Hardwood Finish Electric Lights, Parquetry Flooring, Side and Rear Paved Alleys, Double Back Porches

Open and Lighted

and Bath

Until 9 o'Clock Tonight.

131 F ST. N. W. OR 7TH AND H STS. N. E.

Massachusetts Avenue Heights

"The Best Buy in Washington"

Appreciation in land values has been proportionately greater along the line of Massachusetts Avenue than in any other section of residential Wash-

American Security and Trust Co., Amos H. Plumb, Trustees.

Thomas J. Fisher & Co., Inc. General Sales Agent 738 15th St. N. W.